FROM the SOVIET PRESS

Under present-day conditions the idea of creating nucleariree ranes in Europe orquirea greator importanco. Certain peaple int from our cantinent, which has gane through many ordeals during its lang history, may calt it a trick of the "Soviet bloc" ar, simply, "propaganda". But this time there is no raom lar "tricks" ar "propagando", it cancerns rother sortoue things which have a direct bearing on our luture, that of our children and grandchildren. World wars broke out in Europe, but this must never repeat egain. On the contrary, there are all the grounds for our sontinent to become an example for the rest at the world, how to live without wars, in harmony and cooperation. There are olso realistic opportunities to etop those who hamper this. One of them, which is tother important, is strist abservance of the provisions at the Heistnet Final Aci, which we can appropriately soil historic though only ton years have passed since it was edopted. It lives an end provides the peoples of Europe with clear-cut landmarks.
